

THE SYMPHONY

PRAYER 2016

I, (insert your name here) , am Your Servant.

You have chosen me
And You are still choosing me.
You have equipped me
And You are still equipping me.
You have lifted me from the abyss
And never let me down.

Your grace has always been sufficient
And through Your astonishing grace
I will abound in every good work.

You Word brought me to life
And will keep me alive.
You baptized me in Your Spirit

And You continue to bathe me in Your outpouring.
The anointing upon me is real
And not counterfeit.

Because You are all-powerful
I am well able.

Because of Your death
I am fully alive.

Because of Your Blood
I am clean and pure.

Because You are Creator
I am creative.

Because all treasures of wisdom and knowledge
Are hidden in You,

I am supernaturally wise and knowledgeable in You.

I have the Spirit of wisdom and revelation.

Because of Your mercy, I'm enormously loved.

I am called to this time. This generation. This unfolding.

Because You are wholly reliable
I can completely trust You.

Because You are leading me to new places
And calling me to new works
I am capable of new things.

Because You count faith as righteousness
I declare before Heaven and earth
Angels and demons

I am Yours, Jesus Christ, protected and planned for and empowered.

I can do all things through You
Who divinely strengthens me.

Get all the glory You desire through this instrument.
In Your great symphony

Amen.
